RECOGNITION IN THE WELL

Rep. McDaniel was recognized in the Well.

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE McDANIEL

Mr. Speaker, the day before yesterday you became our Speaker of the House.

In sessions past, I have appealed to you—in private and in these public forums—to exercise your prerogative of appointment and fairly apportion this house's leadership positions among the majority and minority parties. I'm not going to do that this year. Your decision is made, and you have decided that only members of the majority party will share in the leadership and decision-making of this House.

One then may assume that you intend to pass a legislative program with only the votes of Democrats; and that you are prepared to settle the difficult and divisive issues facing us with only the votes of Democrats; and that you are prepared to have the responsibility for those tough decisions rest entirely on Democrats.

With all due respect, Mr. Speaker, if it were me, I'd want some bipartisan support before deciding how to fund great schools at a time of tight revenue; how to fight crime and punish criminals when money for police, prosecutors and prisons is at a premium; how to fix or replace TennCare, when the cost to our state will be greater no matter which way we turn. I'd want some bipartisanship. I'd want to build a consensus. It's been said, Mr. Speaker, that "a trouble shared is a trouble halved".

THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 2001 – THIRD ORGANIZATIONAL DAY

If it were I, Mr. Speaker, I'd find a way to bring the minority party to the table. You and I both, Mr. Speaker, have the privilege of leading national organizations of legislators—you as Chairman of the National Speakers' Conference, me as Chairman of the American Legislative Exchange Council. We have seen the value of bipartisan cooperation and collegiality. I would be proud to work with you, Mr. Speaker, in fostering a bipartisan, cooperative spirit in this house, in working together to make good choices on the difficult issues before us. But we need more than your private assurances that we will be heard.

You have appointed your committees and your officers; the deed is done. One might have thought that you would have, at the very least, fairly apportioned committee assignments. Republicans are 42 percent of this chamber; we deserve at least 40 percent representation on all committees. A quick calculation reflects that on the powerful Finance, Ways, and Means Committee the Minority has a representation of 34 percent. One may also question the rationale and fairness of assignments to the Committee on Calendar and Rules, where the majority enjoys a 12 to 1 ratio.

We ask, Mr. Speaker, for the opportunity to participate constructively in the leadership of this House and this state. That is, after all, what our constituents expect of all of us, and in the end, it will be the only way we can work through the tough issues of our day and assure that Tennessee will remain a place of promise and opportunity for our children and grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, I move my remarks be spread upon the journal of this House.
